Several months ago, I was approached by Timothy Sykes to do a review of his upcoming book, "An American Hedge Fund". I accepted and promptly received an autographed uncorrected proof of the book. An American Hedge Fund, is an interesting autobiographical tale of Tim's trading life, which is relatively short considering he's only 26. He begins the book by chronicling how he began trading while in High School, using the library's Internet connection to research his picks.
