My favorite book by Ellen Hopkins is Burned. Burned is a story about a girl, Pattyn, falling in love and experiencing new things. Burned is a fantastic novel, but the credit must be given to Hopkins and her excellent writing. Hopkins's writing style, character development, and plot development are what make this story so interesting.

In bestselling author Ellen Hopkins's deft hands, Ariel's emotionally charged journey to find out the truth of who she really is balances beautifully with Maya's story of loss and redemption.
This is a memorable portrait of two young women trying to make sense of their lives and coming face to face with themselves—for both the last and the very first time.
