Paul C\u00e9zanne was one of the greatest of the French impressionist painters. This delightful book follows his son, also called Paul, as he travels to the mountains to spend a summer with his father. He discovers that his father, a very large man, paints the natural world with a passion that few can understand.

This one is about my favorite painter, Paul Cézanne, and his son, also named Paul, the "apple boy" of the title, who was beloved by his father and later acted as his agent. The story details how young Paul went to visit his father and how, together, they explored the nearby mountain (Mont St. Victoire) and the natural area, as the father looked for subjects to paint.
