Half Lives And Half Truths

Half-Lives & Half-Truths. Confronting the Radioactive Legacies of the Cold War. Edited by Barbara Rose Johnston. The long Cold War of the twentieth century has ended, but only now are the poisonous legacies of that “first nuclear age” coming to light. Activists and anthropologists, the authors of this volume reveal the devastating, complex, and long-term environmental health problems afflicting the people who worked in uranium mining and processing, lived in regions dedicated to the ...

Enemies of Honesty: Half-Truths - Life, Hope & Truth

There is no worse coward than one who constantly tells half-truths. Because he who combines truth with falsehood will sooner or later reveal the whole lie. Deceit disguised by good manners are harmful and corrosive. They tend to come to the surface, just like lies.

The converse of half-life is the Doubling Time—also called the Rule of 70. This is the period of time it takes something to double in quantity. The doubling time of medical knowledge was 50 years in the 1950s. By 1980, it had come down to seven years. In 2010, it was three-and-a-half years and by 2020, two years from now, it is projected to be just two months. That

The half-life of truth is 45 years |
Founding Fuel

A half-truth is a deceptive statement that includes some element of truth.

The statement might be partly true, the statement may be totally true but only part of the whole truth, or it may use some deceptive element, such as improper punctuation, or double meaning, especially if the intent is to deceive, evade, blame or misrepresent the truth.

Half-truth - Wikipedia

It's been widely found that the half-life of truth in the medical field, specifically surgery, is 45 years. What does this mean? It means that in 45 years, half of everything we believe is true today will turn out to be incorrect or obsolete.
