SimCity 4 can be used in conjunction with Maxis' popular game The Sims. Sims can be imported into the city where they will report what they think of the area they are living in. SC4 comes with some default sims for those without a copy of the game. Moreover, SC4 does have a control interface very similar to The Sims.

Take it slow, don't play SimCity 4 like the way you play SimCity 5. Because budget-play is extremely important. If you expand too fast, 9 out of 10 times you'll be in trouble because of that. Develop your city section by section. Wait until it's stable, and have steady inflow of cash before moving on to the next section of your city.

Your city (once you have given it a name) will be stored on your PC in: Documents – SimCity 4 – Regions – Medium City. To backup your city-file, use Explorer to find the city file and copy that file to your backup media (CD, thumb drive, etc.). Don't use the "save as" function in SimCity – it will occasionally save a corrupt file.
